One Team – One Plan – All Hazards

Tropical Storm Alberto

Situation Report #4              Tuesday, June 13, 2006
                                        4:45 PM

Current Situation:

• Tropical Storm Alberto has now made landfall and is moving northeasterly through northern Florida into Georgia
• St. Johns County EOC is at Level 3 Monitoring
• Florida Governor Jeb Bush has issued Executive Order 06-130 regarding Tropical Storm Alberto, which is a State of Emergency for the entire State of Florida.
• St. Johns County is under a Tropical Storm Warning
• Tonight’s Weather: Windy, with showers and thunderstorms likely. High 74° F. Winds S at 20 to 30 mph. Chance of rain 60%, rainfall near .5 inch.
• Since 5pm Monday rainfall totals have reached 3.3 inches at the St. Johns County EOC
• Citizens Information Line 904-824-5550

County Actions:

• Emergency Operations Center is at a Level 3 – Monitoring
• St. Johns County has not Declared a State of Local Emergency
• No evacuations are anticipated at this time
• St. Johns County Emergency Management is participating in State Conference calls with the National Weather Service and the National Hurricane Center.

ESF 4 – Fire

• Conducting Conference Calls between North Battalion and South Battalion every 12 hours

ESF 5 – Planning | Kelly Cuppoletti

• Creating situation reports
• Conference Calls
• Monitoring Groove and Hurrevac

ESF 8 – Health/Medical

• St. Johns County Community-based Care Family Integrity Program is monitoring warning and watch areas to determine if there are any foster children under their control residing in these areas.

ESF 16 – Law Enforcement

• SJSO has staged trailers of cones, generators, and lights in preparedness for power outages in intersections.
• Additional deputies are on standby

ESF 17 – Animal Control

• Staff has been alerted and put on standby
• Traps have been pulled
• All equipment has been accounted for and vehicles fueled

ESF 18 – Business and Industry

• The Northrop Grumman St. Augustine Manufacturing Center Crisis Management Team (CMT) is following the progress of Tropical Storm Alberto. Situation updates are being provided by the Control Center and Crisis Management Director.

The Next Situation Report will be issued Wednesday at 9:00 AM

Citizens Information Line 904-824-5550